

ENVIRONMENTAL

THE ENVIRONMENTAL TEAM AT BME MANAGES A WIDE RANGE OF PROJECTS involving all aspects of wetland delineations, restoration, mitigation, reporting and permitting. BME's experience with permitting requirements and environmental regulations allow clients to optimize buildable space while minimizing permitting requirements, environmental impact, and other potential costs. We have earned an excellent reputation and are well respected by local, state and federal regulatory agencies.

BME ASSOCIATES
ENGINEERS • SURVEYORS • LANDSCAPE ARCHITECTS

800 Parker Hill Drive, Suite 300
Rochester, New York 14625
(585) 377-7360

bmepc.com

WETLAND SERVICES

BME has extensive experience in the delineation, monitoring, design, and inspection of a variety of wetland and stream related projects. Our experience includes:

- Field Delineations and Reports
- NYSDEC/USACE Liaison
- Wetland/Stream Disturbance Permitting
- Stream Restoration
- Emergency Permit Applications
- Mitigation Plans
- Field Monitoring
- Regulatory Updates

NYSDEC STORMWATER REGULATIONS SERVICES

Preparation of project SWPPPs, erosion control monitoring and reporting, municipal/SWCD/DEC liaison, annual maintenance reporting, and regulatory updates.

FLOODPLAIN ANALYSIS & MAPPING

BME has experienced staff capable of extensive technical study required by FEMA for creating floodplain map amendments and revisions.

MUNICIPAL ENVIRONMENTAL SERVICES

Environmental permitting for public works projects, SWPPP compliance, stormwater infrastructure survey/GIS mapping, and municipal staff training on related topics.

NATURAL RESOURCES SERVICES

Natural resources inventory, flora and fauna surveys, endangered and threatened species surveys, steep slope analysis and erosion mitigation, stream restoration, and State Environmental Quality Review Act investigations (SEQRA).

STATE ENVIRONMENTAL QUALITY REVIEW ACT (SEQRA)

Preparation of formwork, supplemental information, preparation of environmental impact statements, and compliance with SEQRA regulation.